

UVA ECONOMICS GATHERINGS FOR RESEARCHERS WITH ADVANCED DEGREES

Call for Papers 1st UVA Economics GRAD Conference Charlottesville, VA | September 2-3, 2016

Submission Deadline: August 1, 2016

The first annual research meeting of the University of Virginia economics Alumni Interest Group will be held September 2-3 on the UVA grounds. Its goal is to provide research feedback, and foster collaboration among our members.

All economists who have graduated from UVA (Whether at the graduate or undergraduate level) are encouraged to submit papers in all areas of economic research. All submissions, both empirical and theoretical, are welcome, and there is no submission fee. All presentations will be in plenary sessions, and each paper will be assigned a discussant. Completed papers (which will be given preference) or extended abstracts should be submitted electronically by August 1, 2016. See below for submission instructions.

The research presentations will take place Friday, September 2nd. Derek A. Neal (PhD 1992) will present the keynote speech that evening, followed by dinner in the Colonnade Club Solarium. Saturday will include a tailgate picnic in the Lawn Gardens and a group outing for the UVA football opening game of the season. Those who are not able to attend the research sessions are still encouraged to attend these other events.

The final conference program and agenda will be announced in early August.

Paper Submission Procedure

To submit a paper you will first need to register for the conference here. Then please submit your abstract or completed paper by email to Virginia.Econ.Grad@gmail.com by August 1st, 2016. We will announce the final conference program and agenda by August 8th, 2016.
