REMEMBERING HARRY MARSHALL, JR. '61

On June 22, 2021, we lost Harry Marshall '61, long-time president of Virginia Beta, Inc. and the Fraternity's "Second Founding Father." In a description of his own life penned during his lengthy illness, Harry concluded it in brief: "HE LOVED HIS FAMILY, HIS COUNTRY, HIS UNIVERSITY, AND HIS FRATERNITY." Those words truly do encapsulate Harry's life. Harry treasured his family and friends (and was loved in return). He was a senior diplomat and defended our nation at the highest echelons of the State and Justice Departments. For those of us who met him at UVA, he was the personification of a Virginia Gentleman (despite his New York roots) and lived the word "brotherhood."

Harry was born in 1939 in Mt. Vernon, NY, where his first job was a carrier for the old Daily Argus. His youthful interest in journalism continued at the University where he became a City Editor with the Cavalier Daily.

University of Virginia (1961). Corks and Curis. Charlottesville, Va: University of Virginia.

He graduated from UVA with a degree in political science and received his law degree from University of Pennsylvania in 1965. His education culminated at the University of Cambridge where he rowed #3 in several of the VIIIs for Churchill College.

Upon returning to the U.S., Harry worked as an estate lawyer in New York City, and in 1970 met the love of his life, Claire Sanford Whitman. The two were married in Bedford, NY, in 1971. He worked with the founders of the Environmental Action Coalition (EAC) to orchestrate the celebration of the first Earth Day in 1970 and then served as President of the EAC until 1976.

During this time, Claire gave birth to Harrison Reinhard Marshall in 1974 and Katharine Sanford Marshall (UVA '97) in 1975. The Marshalls then moved to Washington where he was named Executive Director of the General Advisory Committee on Arms Control. He was a member of the U.S. SALT delegation and contributed to the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Act of 1978. Appointed as a Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of State under the Reagan administration in 1980, he became a key negotiator of several new nuclear supply agreements.

Between periods of government service, Harry opened the Beijing and Hong Kong offices for Martin Marietta International. Then in 1991, Harry joined the Department of Justice Office of International Affairs where he spearheaded federal extradition and mutual legal assistance between the United States and a significant portion of the world. In that role, he helped obtain the return from Pakistan of Ramzi Yousef, later convicted for the 1993 World Trade Center bombing, and Mir Aimal Kansi, who was convicted of the 1993 shootings at CIA Headquarters in Langley, Virginia. Harry retired in 2011.

Harry maintained a close, longstanding relationship with UVA, including serving on the Jefferson Scholar Committee and as an Adjunct Professor at the School of Law teaching a course in International Criminal Law. The UVA effort closest to his heart was the stewardship of Phi Society (and previously Phi Delta Theta), as President of the House Corporation and Alumni Board for over 30 years. In 2000, in response to new restrictions imposed by the Phi Delt National, Harry led the alumni-supported effort to gain independence and University recognition as Phi Society.

Young Phikeias from the 1990s to the present were often intimidated by the bespectacled gentleman who towered over most of the First Years. Outfitted in a bowtie and a Phi rosette on his lapel, he welcomed each new pledge class with a discussion about the Fraternity's impact on his life and on so many others.

Harry loved to mentor Phis that took officer positions in the House, often inviting them for lunch at one of his haunts in Washington, DC. Several recall showing up to an oak-paneled restaurant near the Treasury Department, to be escorted to "Mr. Marshall's table" by the fireplace. This imposing entrance was always quickly quieted by Harry's disarming and friendly manner where he would treat his young guests like equals, engrossed with their ideas about the Fraternity's finances and upkeep.

Scott Oswald '90, long-time Virginia Beta Board member and new Board President, noted in his eulogy that "I watched Harry teach them - not in a pedantic way, but through his actions. Harry showed them what a sense of commitment looked like as he returned to the fraternity house year after year. In the end, he taught nearly 500 young men over 30 years." Indeed, Harry found a way around the Justice Department bureaucracy to consistently hire former Phis as law clerks, propelling their career. One of those, Brendan Dignan '01, House President during the departure from Phi Delt Nationals, stated that "I wouldn't be where I am today without Harry. In addition to being my mentor, he was more like a grandfather, and I loved him very much."

While Harry looked like an academic dean out of central casting, he was usually the life of the party. If he happened to be in Charlottesville to teach a law school class, it was not uncommon to see a tall man in his 60s or 70s suddenly walk through the door at One University Circle during a social event (where the Delta Gammas and Pi Phis would quickly surround him). He was usually the most popular brother at any House party. Harry was game for all social engagements, and was an enthusiastic racquets player and golfer at the Chevy Chase Club and Nantucket Yacht Club where he and Claire have been members for many decades. His love of history was evident throughout his life. He was an avid reader of books on Jefferson, he volunteered at the Nantucket Historical Society, and was Chair of the Chevy Chase Club Archive Committee.

In addition to Harry's immediate family, five grandchildren survive him: Jules and George, children of Harrison and his wife Diana Pittman of Austin, TX, and Sam, Harry, and James, children of Kate and husband Pete Huntington of Needham, MA.

The Virginia Beta Board looks forward to holding an event to honor Harry's service to the Fraternity in the near future.

SUPPORTING THE FRATERNITY

It may come as no surprise that raising funds for the upkeep of the House and the Fraternity's operations has been particularly difficult due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Even if you have not regularly donated in the past (or have not had a chance to visit the House in recent years), we ask that you consider supporting one of the Fraternity's charitable funds this year to keep your Fraternity strong now and into the future. Gifts are counted by Alumni Hall as part of your overall donations to the University, including class gifts for reunion giving. We recommend consulting with your financial advisor to determine the deductibility of these gifts. The Board appreciates the generosity of the many alumni who continue to support the funds.

Phi House Fund. Donations are used for annual maintenance and capital repairs of the House at One University Circle to keep the structure one of the most well-kept on Grounds.

Phi Educational Endowment Fund. Donations are allocated to provide educational assistance for undergraduate members of the Fraternity who have difficulty paying tuition on top of other collegiate expenses.

Phi Circle Fund. Permits alumni may make gifts under a will or trust agreement for the benefit of the capital needs of the House at One University Circle or other needs of Phi Society as determined by the Virginia Beta Executive Committee.

You may make a gift to the Phi House Fund or the Phi Educational Fund by:

- Website at: <https://aig.alumni.virginia.edu/phisociety/support-phi-society/>
- Using the enclosed form and reply envelope
- Calling UVA Fund's Gift Processing at 434-243-9060
- Gifts of securities may be made by mailing them to the above addresses, calling 434-243-906, or visiting phisociety.com
- By check made out to UVA Fund, allocated to the Phi House Fund or the Phi Educational Endowment Fund and mailed to:

UVA Fund Gift Processing Services
c/o Phi Society
P.O. Box 400314
Charlottesville, VA 22904

Memo: Phi House Fund | FAA568 or Phi Educational Fund | FAA556

Alumni may join the Phi Circle Fund by advising the VAB Board Executive Committee of the creation and identification of a will or trust under which funds are to be transferred to the Phi Circle Fund. Alumni gifts may be designated for specific purposes and will only be disbursed as so designated by the order of the VAB Executive Committee. Please contact Mike Campbell '91, VAB Board Secretary, at mgcampbell@mmanby.com for more information.

RETURN TO GROUNDS

Students at the University were excited to return to in-person classes and the lifting of most COVID-19 restrictions for the fall 2021 semester. Greek life organizations were able to host events with no COVID-19 limitations, and masks are no longer required while outside on Grounds. Masks are still required in all University-owned buildings, except residence halls or while actively eating or drinking. The University is continuing to monitor the situation regarding COVID-19 and making adjustments accordingly. To stay up to date on how the University is tracking the virus, please visit: www.returntoundgrounds.virginia.edu.

ANNUAL REPORT TO VIRGINIA BETA ALUMNI

With the passing of Harry Marshall, the Virginia Beta Board of Trustees required a new President. Fortunately, Scott Oswald '90 agreed to step forward and was elected President for a two-year term. VAB Trustees Warren Nowlin '78 and Mike Campbell '91 will continue to serve as Vice President and Secretary, respectively, and VAB Trustee Matt Grossman '91 was elected as Treasurer. In its oversight of House finances, the Board is assisted by Pam Chanfrau of ACP Resources. She and her team of bookkeepers track income and expenses and provide monthly reports to the Board.

House Leadership

This past year, the House executive committee was well managed under the leadership of President Kevin Cox '22, Vice President Finn O'Dell '22, Treasurer Carter Light '22, and Secretary Bryan Ricks '22. For 2022, the actives recently elected Terence Moriarty '23 as President and Tanner Lewis '23 as Treasurer.

In addition to these fine young men, we are proud of the House's leadership throughout the University and Charlottesville community. Indeed, no matter the decade, one thing remains true: we have always recruited a well-rounded group of actives who excel both academically and athletically, in clubs and philanthropy. You can read more about the current actives' accomplishments in the Report from the Undergraduate Actives further below.

We have many Phi alumni who were mentored by other Phi alumni before them. That is part of our tradition of brotherhood and we ask that you help it continue. If your business is open to interviewing or hiring our undergraduate actives for summer internships or jobs, please email Alumni Chair Noah Bennetch at nbb3g@virginia.edu.

COVID-19 and Impact on Financials

The pandemic has impacted the finances of the House. Due to restrictions on parties and rush last year, the House reduced parlor dues for the actives and we saw some delinquencies. Since alumni were unable to visit Charlottesville last year to attend sporting events or visit the House, we could not make the usual in-person fundraising connections. The Board is seeking donations from alumni to replenish House reserves for funding repairs and improvement projects. You can make a gift on-line to any of the charitable funds created to support the Fraternity. See left for a description.

FACILITY MANAGEMENT

The House remains in good physical condition, although there are regular maintenance items to address. We utilize the services of Piedmont Facilities Management to regularly inspect the building and arrange for repairs. Recently, the dishwasher, faucet, and ice machine were replaced in the kitchen and contractors updated the smoke detectors and lights. We are looking at a few larger maintenance projects, including installing a backflow preventer in the basement sprinkler system to comply with the building code, and constructing an emergency egress in "Top Sides" (3rd floor).

VAB Trustee David Edwards '90, a resident of Charlottesville, serves as Chapter Advisor. He and VAB Trustee Ajay Malik '04 are the point persons for repair projects.

HOUSE MEAL PLAN

The brotherhood is taking advantage of the new dining room on the first floor, which was restored following the removal of the two bedrooms and bathroom constructed in 1988. This allows the actives to enjoy lunch and dinner in one location and eliminated dining in scattered areas of the House. The brothers continue to appreciate the fine cuisine of chef Trish Tye.

RUSH

Due to the University's limitations on social large gatherings last year, rush was changed to an online format in January 2021. Under those difficult conditions, the Phis still managed to recruit 18 new pledges hailing from Virginia, Tennessee, Florida, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, and Connecticut. Since restrictions have loosened this year, we are expecting a return to in-person rush events in January 2022. If you know of any UVA students interested in fraternity life, please contact Rush Chair Finn O'Dell '22 at fmo5zz@virginia.edu.

2022 SPRING EVENTS

We are hoping to resume the Cudlip weekend in April 2022, including the golf tournament and celebration at the House. We also plan to commemorate the life of Harry Marshall '61 once COVID-19 considerations permit an event large enough to properly honor Harry and his service to the fraternity. Please stay tuned for further announcements in the spring. We would love for alumni to come back to C-ville, see the House, and meet the next generation of Phis. Please feel free to contact me or other members of the Board whenever you have questions about the Fraternity. We thank you for your continued support.

LETTER TO PHI SOCIETY PARENTS

On behalf of fellow alumni, I am pleased to welcome you to the Phi Society community. As you may know, the fraternity's heritage dates to its founding in University Lawn rooms in 1873. Since then, generations of fraternity members have been active contributors to the Charlottesville and University communities through their service and philanthropy, academic achievement, and membership in the University's athletic teams, newspapers, affinity groups, clubs, and countless other activities. As such, the undergraduate members of the Phi Society bear a responsibility to continue this tradition of contribution. They are not alone in their endeavor.

The Phi Society's alumni organization, Virginia Beta, through its Board of Trustees, provides advice and support to undergraduate members, oversees the maintenance of the fraternity's home at One University Circle, and fosters its good standing on grounds. Last year, the Board worked hand-in-hand with the undergraduate members to help ensure a healthy and safe environment as the University navigated the pandemic. For decades, Board members have reveled at the opportunity to help ensure that each new undergraduate class enjoys the same opportunity to obtain lifelong friendships and memories that we enjoyed during our own years at the University. Like alumni participation, parent participation is also critical to realizing these goals. Each spring, the Board underwrites a portion of the cost of the Phi Society parents formal. We hope you'll join us at the event this April 2, 2022.

Every year, we ask alumni to support the Phi Society by contributing to the Phi House Fund or the Phi Educational Endowment Fund. The former is used for attending to annual maintenance and capital repairs of the house at One University Circle, and the latter to provide Phi educational assistance. Both funds are maintained through the University of Virginia Fund and, accordingly, gifts are considered contributions to the University. We hope you will consider making a gift to either fund by following the instructions on page 3.

Please feel free to contact me whenever you have any questions. Many thanks for your support of Phi Society.

AWARDS AND VIRTUAL CUDLIP

Due to the COVID-19 outbreak, we were unable to have our 30th Annual Cudlip ceremony in 2020, so the 30th and 31st Annual Jeffrey Rockwell Cudlip Award Ceremony took place virtually this past April on Zoom, where Kevin Cox '22 and Carter Paulen '23 were presented their awards. This event was planned and executed by Harry Marshall, Scott Oswald, and Alumni Chair Carter Paulen. Despite the circumstances, we were able to successfully carry-on Jeffery Cudlip's legacy and provide Harry one last opportunity to hear from and speak his wisdom to the actives and many alumni that attended. The ceremony took place in the chapter room, with most viewers on Zoom. We attempted to continue as many traditions as possible, including the singing of the songs by the newly initiated pledge class. We were able to conduct this ceremony in conjunction with the fourth-year awards, in which Kyle Brumbaugh '21 won the Record for the "Best Phi", Johnny Radossich '21 won the Joseph C. Tunner Award for athletic achievement, and Quinn Hollister '21 won the Maupin Pence Memorial Award for academic excellence.

PATRICK GORDON '01's PHI FANTASY FOOTBALL

Patrick Gordon '01 has no significant professional accomplishments of note, but is pleased to report that in his ample free time, he has found modest yet enviable success playing daily fantasy football against a collection of fellow Phis while working on his book "A Front-Row Seat to Greatness: 1998 UVA Basketball's Epic Run to a Record of 14-16." Over the course of the first six weeks of the fantasy season, Patrick has amassed a pile of winnings approaching $500, which is close to covering the cost of his multiple subscription-only fantasy websites and magazines. At this pace, he could easily surpass $1,000 in aggregate prize money, which, net of his investments in fantasy intelligence, could represent upwards of $250. Not too shabby! Prior to the self-proclamation of the aforementioned winnings, the balance of the participants had not noticed his accomplishments. Having been distracted by successful careers and loving families, they were hastily submitting weekly picks once prompted by Patrick to "get their picks in." It is not yet known whether these pre-kickoff email alarms are a means of promoting circa 1998 pledge class brotherhood or accumulating a large enough group of unengaged brethren to validate the might of his winnings.

VIC AND JEAN BELL '65 WITH JOHN AND BOBBIE HERRELL '63

In June, my wife (Jean) and I took a family vacation with our two daughters, their husbands, and four out of our five grandchildren (one granddaughter had an unavoidable conflict arise and could not go) to Lone Mountain Ranch, in Big Sky, MT. We had great weather and it was a really fun time. For several days prior to meeting up with the family at the Bozeman airport, Jean and I had visited with old friends, John & Bobbie Herrell, in their home in Sun Valley, ID (Pictured above). John was my "Big Brother" at the Phi house, served as President of the house in 1962-63, and was the driving force behind the purchase of #1 University Circle and move from 129 Chancellor Street. A picture of the four of us near Sun Valley is attached.

ANDREW GOODYEAR '87

This past March I was inducted into the Southeast Region Pop Warner Hall of Fame (Pictured left). Inductees must have a minimum of 25 years of service at multiple levels within the organization (coaching and league administration). What an amazing honor to receive after so many years of coaching youth tackle football here in South Florida.

TED CROCKIN '11

In July, we welcomed our second child, Samantha Taylor Crockin, who joined big sister, Winsley Jane Crockin (2).

UNDERGRADUATE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Greetings from Charlottesville! Spending two years in college under the weighty umbrella of COVID-19 is not something any of us could have expected or desired. That being said, we are a resourceful bunch and are mindful that UVA Phis have dealt with their share of challenges over nearly 150 years. Here is an update of how the House has navigated the pandemic and still made the most of our fraternity experience.

Rush and Initiation

Due to University restrictions, the 2021 rush process was vastly different from previous years. Open House was entirely virtual, and later rounds of the rush process were limited to events with a maximum of six individuals in a group. This created several significant challenges during the rush process, but Phi Society was still able to form a strong pledge class of sixteen new Phis.

Due to a lifting of some COVID-19 restrictions, the 2021 pledge class was fortunate enough to have an in-person initiation in May 2021. Dave Edwards '90 performed the ceremonial initiation along with President, Kevin Cox '22. The newest sixteen Phis were informed of the sacred history and tradition of the brotherhood they had been accepted into, and a picture from their initiation can be seen on page 7.

Social Scene

As you might have expected, there were no social events at the House for the majority of the spring 2021 semester. To maintain a feeling of connection while staying safe during these times, the actives organized events such as dinners in small groups and virtual poker nights. Similarly, chapter meetings were held virtually throughout the spring, as the size of normal in-person meetings was not permitted under University rules.

In the fall, the Inter Fraternity Council announced that Greek organizations were allowed to host social gatherings again, without any COVID-19 restrictions. Brothers were excited to return to a typical social calendar, as several events have been held at the House this fall. Additionally, the lifting of restrictions has enhanced the fraternity experience in other ways, as in-person chapter meetings and the usual buffet-style for House meals has returned.

Extracurricular Activities

Phi Society brothers continue to be active in the University and Charlottesville community. Andrew Gillespie '22 is a small group leader for Intervarsity; TJ Whitman '22 is the Madison House Athletics program director for a long time children's soccer organization; Carter Light '22 is a project leader for UVA's chapter for 180 Degrees Consulting, the world's largest student volunteer consultancy; Alex Parlanti '22 is a member of College Mentors for Kids and the Pre-Dental Society; Matt Thompson '22 is serves as the Community Director for UVA's Forge, a non-profit that prepares students with the modern skills they need to make an impact in the world; E. Jack Drennan '22 is a volunteer at UVA hospital; Ryan Smith '23 is a Jefferson Literary and Debating Society probationary member, Charlottesville Debate League tutor, VISAS language consultant, and private tutor to local high school students; Tanner Lewis '23 is a volunteer at UVA hospital; Nick Chuckas '23 is a member of the Rock Climbing Club and MS Society; Lorenzo Allorto '24 is a member of the Virginia Case Club; Jack Meaney '24 is a member of the Sports Business Club; and Josh Zimmermann '24 is a member of the PKG Concert Planning Committee.

Athletics

Phis continue to excel athletically through participation in club and intramural sports. Erik Roach '22 plays for the Club Rugby team; Trent Ballard '22 is a member of the Club Frisbee A team where he serves as the social chair; Ian Toubin '22 and Max Gotlieb '22 both play for the Club Squash team; Drew Johnson '23 serves as the treasurer for the Club Hockey team; Ryland Maragh '23 and Cole Yantiss '23 are members of the Club Soccer team; Brendan Lynch '23 is a member of the Virginia Alpine Ski and Snowboard team; and Jack Meaney '24 plays for the Club Golf team.

Internships & Careers

The latest graduating class of Phi Society has carried on the tradition of accepting full-time positions at respected companies or continuing postgraduate education at elite universities. Kyle Brumbaugh '21 is pursuing a law degree at the University of Florida; Quinn Hollister '21 is a graduate student at Stanford University's school of engineering; Chris Warburton '21 is a medical school student at the University of Miami; Johnny Radossich '21 is an Associate Consultant at Appian; Alan Armendariz '21 is a Data Analyst at Freddie Mac; and Jack Bonham '21 is an analyst for Deloitte.

In addition to the successes of our most recently graduated brothers, a number of fourth-year Phis have already accepted full-time roles for next year. Carter Light '22 will be working with Oliver Wyman; Andy Gillespie '22 will be a tax consultant with Deloitte; TJ Whitman '22 will be working at Boston Consulting Group; Bryant Ricks '22 will be a solutions engineer for Solovis; Matt Thompson '22 will be a technical consultant at Pariveda Solutions; and Trent Ballard '22 will be pursuing a Master's Degree in Computer Science at UVA.

Active brothers also held internships this past summer, including: TJ Whitman '22 with CarMax; Kevin Cox '22 with the Department of Defense; Trent Ballard '22 at Capital One; Max Gotlieb '22 with G2 Capital Advisors; Carter Light '22 with HKA consulting; Finn O'Dell '22 at an Orthopedic Foot and Ankle Center; Jack Maschler '23 as a dental assistant at multiple offices in Northern Virginia; JD Etz '23 at Capital One; Ryan Rosenberg '24 as a sports writer and web designer for Vault Sports; and Jack Meaney '24 as a data analyst for the Charlottesville Tom Sox.

Parents' Formal

The Sixth Annual Parents Formal was again rescheduled to next spring. It will be hosted at the Omni Hotel on April 2, 2022. Special thanks to Ben Gushue '20, Johnny Radossich '21, and Finn O'Dell '22 for their work in organizing this event. Despite it being rescheduled multiple times, we are all looking forward to welcoming our parents back to One University Circle for this amazing event!

Community Service & Philanthropy

While we were unable to hold a philanthropy event in spring 2021, Philanthropy Chair Ian Toubin '22 organized a virtual raffle that raised $1,300 for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. With Covid regulations being lifted for the fall 2021 semester, we were able to hold our traditional philanthropy event, Splashdown, complete with t-shirts, a waterslide, dunk tank, and snow cones. We are still selling shirts and collecting donations for the event; if you are interested in buying a shirt or supporting the foundation, please email Ian Toubin (ict5jb@virginia.edu). Brothers have also volunteered hundreds of hours of their time in support of various service organizations. These include Albemarle County Fire Rescue, Madison House, and UVA Hospital, among others.

House Band

At the beginning of the fall 2021 semester, a few Phis founded our own house band, Spoonfed. The band has been playing at Phi Society events, other fraternity houses, and local bars, with Will Sevy '22 on vocals & guitar, Kieran O'Dell '24 on vocals and drums, Josh Zimmermann '24 on bass, Kevin Cox '22 on guitar, and Ian Toubin '22 serving as the band's manager. Some clips and pictures of Spoonfed performing can be found on the band's Instagram page, @spoonfedofficial.
